SUNDAY MEDITATION

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

2 Kings 5:14-17; Psalm 98:1-4; 2 Timothy 2:8-13; Luke 17:11-19

Your faith has saved you. (Luke 17:19)

Imagine how this Samaritan must have felt when he heard Jesus say these words to him! As a foreigner, he was outside of God's covenant with Israel, and yet this Jewish miracle worker had just assured him of salvation—all because of his faith. His heart must have been bursting with gratitude!

But what about his nine friends, who did not return to Jesus? Surely they had faith as well. What else would compel them to cry out to Jesus for healing or to call him "Master" (Luke 17:13)? Why would they go show themselves to the priests if they didn't believe that Jesus would heal them along the way? Of course they had faith!

But there was something different about this Samaritan. He had the kind of faith that opened him up to worship and gratitude and praise to God. He saw Jesus in a different light than the other nine. Jesus wasn't just a "Master," as in a teacher of spiritual truths. He was a vessel for God's grace. Realizing he was healed, this man knew that God was working through Jesus, and that moved him to return and praise the God who had been so good to him. And that act of worship opened him up to the greatest healing of all: salvation.

Readings like today's can prompt us to examine our faith. Does it include the grateful, joy-filled worship of the Samaritan? Or like the nine, do we limit ourselves mostly to prayers of petition and acts of obedience?

Don't worry; everyone needs to deepen their faith. Just don't think that you have to do it on your own. Worship is a two-way street. Just as deeper faith can lead to more joyous worship, so too can prayers of worship and praise deepen your faith. So lift your heart to Jesus. Proclaim his greatness. Praise him for his love and mercy. Let your worship—and your faith—help you experience his salvation more and more.

"All praise to you, Jesus, my savior and my healer!"
