SUNDAY BIBLE REFLECTION

Solemnity of Corpus Christi, Year C

Genesis 14:18-20, Psalm 109(110):1-4, 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Luke 9:11-17

This is my body that is for you.

1 Corinthians 11:24

Have you ever seen a carpet of flowers? Throughout the world, people celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ with Eucharistic processions that take place on streets covered with intricate, ornate "carpets" of flower petals. These carpets recreate religious artwork or depict holy symbols or designs. Children often follow the procession, joyfully dancing and throwing the flower petals into the air!

Joy seems to be a central message of today's feast. It's a day to rejoice in the very real presence of Jesus with us.

We rejoice in Jesus, who inaugurated a new covenant between God and his creation by offering himself on the cross. We affirm that covenant each time we eat his Body and drink his Blood in the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26). And we celebrate God's faithful love for us.

We rejoice that Jesus is with us in the Blessed Sacrament: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. He has not left us orphans; he is close to us in every tabernacle in the world. So we lift our hearts in praise and thanks.

Divine Mercy Devotion

Every Friday @ 8:00pm in the Chapel.

Weekday Rosary Devotions

Join us for the rosary before masses at 5.30pm in the Chapel. Rosary at Grotto every 1st Friday of the month after the evening mass.

We rejoice that Jesus provides for all our needs. He feeds our deepest hungers for peace, or healing, or closeness to God. When he multiplied the loaves and fish, he gave us just a glimpse into the fulfillment we can experience when he feeds us his own divine life in Holy Communion (Luke 9:16-17). As we receive him, we celebrate the unending life he offers us.

Today is a day to reflect on Jesus, minister of the new covenant in his blood. It's a day to ponder the mystery of his presence with us under the appearance of bread and wine. But don't forget about the flowers. Take some time to rejoice and praise Jesus!

"Lord Jesus, I give you praise and thanks that you are with us in the Blessed Sacrament!"
