14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

Ezekiel 2:2-5;

2 Corinthians 12:7-10;

Psalms 122:1-4;

Mark 6:1-6;

*I am content with weaknesses.
(2 Corinthians 12:10)*

Is Paul joking? Who would be content with weakness? Most of us would want to be strong and in charge, at the top of our game. In fact, we are more likely to minimize or disguise our limitations or difficulties. So why would Paul be happy not only with weakness but also with “insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints” (2 Corinthians 12:10)?

Because all of his suffering, including the “thorn in the flesh” that he describes in today’s second reading (2 Corinthians 12:7), had taught Paul a lesson. When he was at his weakest, humanly speaking, God’s strength flowed through him the most. When he stopped relying on his own strength and trusting in his own gifts, the Lord’s power dwelt within him more perfectly.

St. Thérèse of Lisieux learned a similar lesson. Painfully aware of her own “littleness” and inability to “climb the stairs to holiness,” she found an elevator—the arms of her heavenly Father. Just as a small child relies on her father to lift her and carry her up the stairs, so Thérèse came to trust and rejoice in her heavenly Father’s strength to carry her in her weakness.

There is a freedom that comes with recognizing our limitations and embracing this kind of childlike dependence on God. The more we honestly acknowledge our weakness, the more room we make for God’s strength to grow in us. We realize that there’s only so much we can do ourselves. But we also realize that as soon as we stop thinking everything depends on us, God will show us what he can do.

So let’s embrace our “littleness”. Let’s lean into our weakness and rely on God’s strength so that we can reveal his power more and more clearly.

*Father, I acknowledge my weakness.
Lord, come and carry me!*
