Sunday Meditation

Easter Sunday, Year B

Acts 10:34, 37-43; Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Colossians 3:1-4;
John 20:1-9

Think of what is above. (Colossians 3:2)

Today is a day of great joy and celebration. That's because Jesus Christ, who suffered a cruel death and rose from his tomb, is now risen in glory. And now that you are "raised with Christ," he invites you to enter into his joy (Colossians 3:1).

You may feel full of joy today. But what if you don't? What if you feel weighed down by worries and burdens? There is still a way that you can experience Easter joy.

How? By faith.

As St. Paul writes in today's second reading, "Think of what is above" (Colossians 3:2). By faith, you can recall that God loves you, that he is with you, and that he has won the victory over death and sin—including all of your own sins! Scripture promises that "there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8:1). That's you! "When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory" (Colossians 3:4). That's you!

Recalling these truths can lead you into another experience of Easter joy: the joy of serving the Lord and his people. Peter must have been overjoyed when Jesus told him, "Feed my lambs" (John 21:15). His failures and sins—even his denial of the Lord—had been washed away! Now he could participate in the mission of the risen Christ. As you serve Jesus today—by loving others, by sharing your faith, or by joyfully preparing a family meal—believe that, just like Peter, you are also participating in Jesus' mission. And that is a true and certain path to joy.

Easter joy is not just about gathering for Mass or enjoying a feast or wearing a special outfit—you know that! It comes about through faith and service, and it can last all year long. So set your heart on "what is above" today (Colossians 3:2). Then hear Jesus say, "Come and share in my joy!"

"Jesus, I rejoice in your resurrection!"

La Salle House

Like the disciples, we long to learn how to pray so as to develop a closer, more intimate & personal relationship with God. We may have tried different methods, look for guides, search far and wide. But the best way to begin this journey is to be and to be with ourselves before God – to pray as we are. Register via: tinyurl.com/prayasyouare
